SPONSOR SPOTLIGHT >>>

Local Lunch Buddies

Each Thursday, we serve a special lunch treat sponsored by our Local Lunch Buddies.

Thanks to POPEYE'S for our special lunch treat this week! We'd also like to send a special thank you to store manager David and his team members Rena and Patricia!

Would you like to be one of our Local Lunch Buddies? To sponsor or donate a meal to S.T.Arts, please contact us at scholastictalent@gmail.com.

We are a 501c3 nonprofit, so your donation is tax deductible!

WALK THAT WALK >>>

Walk like a winner

Confidence is your best accessory. Wear it everyday.

Stand up straight. Head up. Shoulders back. These are just some of the ways to look confident (even when you don't feel it).

Practicing confident posture is only one of the ways that S.T.Arts is helping build our youth's self confidence. In Fashion Modeling class with Ms. Wray S.T.Artists are learning how to walk that walk.

Body language is a powerful form of self expression.

"With confidence you won before you started."

Marcus Garvey

We are constantly giving and receiving wordless messages through our gestures, facial expressions, and posture. Mostly, we do this without even thinking about it.

But, the more we practice and improve our body language, the better we are at delivering the messages we want to deliver.

Don't you want to tell the world that you're a winner? Then walk like it!

FASHION FORWARD >>>

S.T.Artsists get ready for the runway
S.T.Artsists create their personal style

Clothing is more than just the fabric you put on your body. S.T.Artsists are learning that clothing can be a powerful form of self-expression.

In Fashion 101, S.T.Artsists learn to create clothes that show off their personal style. They are looking forward to strutting their stuff at the end-of-summer celebration. (Be on the lookout for details!)

NEW CONTENT COMING! Please follow us on our social media channels to see S.T.Artsists in action!
